

Name _____

Expressive Self-Portrait Rubric

Criteria	Excellent 20 pts.	Very Good 15 pts.	Satisfactory 10 pts.	Unsatisfactory 5 pts.
Meets Requirements	- Meets all of the requirements	- Meets most of the requirements	- Meets at least half of the requirements	- Meets less than half of the requirements
Craftsmanship	- Craftsmanship is neat, considering the painting style of the student	- Craftsmanship is good, there could have been more attention paid to the details	- Craftsmanship needs improvement, lacks attention to details in certain areas	- Minimum amount of effort spent on craftsmanship
Responsibility/ Materials	- Excellent participation in class discussions - Stayed on task throughout entire class - Always cleaned up materials and work area at end of class. Assisted others in cleaning.	- Participated in many class discussions - Stayed on task for majority of class time - Almost always cleaned up materials and work area at end of class.	- Could have participated more in class discussions - Was distracted but was still able to get some work done - Occasionally cleaned materials and work area at end of class.	- Did not participate in class discussions - Did not get any work done in class - Rarely cleaned up materials and work area at end of class
Creativity	- The emotion expressed by the self-portrait creates an impact	- The self-portrait effectively expresses a mood or emotion	- The emotion expressed in the self-portrait is unclear	- There is no evidence of a mood or emotion being expressed in the self-portrait
Design	- Excellent use of color and unique point of view/ composition	- Appropriate use of color and interesting composition	- Shows understanding of warm and cool colors and has an original composition	- Shows little understanding of warm or cool colors, composition is predictable

Extra Credit: _____

Self-Portrait Checklist

Parts of the face drawing _____
 Background Photographs _____
 3 Thumbnail Sketches _____
 16 x 20 Drawing _____
 Painting Exercise _____
 In-progress Critique _____